

Marium Fakhreddine, Administrative Assistant

Marium Fakhreddine joined Rodriguez, Horii, Choi & Cafferata LLP in 2012 and assists in the facilitation and execution of administrative responsibilities throughout the firm.

In addition to direct legal support, her duties include assistance with meeting arrangements, processing of visit requests, preparation of client billing statements and accounts receivable. Prior to joining the firm, Marium was an office manager and medical biller for a Glendale based office. She earned an Associates of Art degree from Glendale Community College.