

Jeffrey L. Glassman, Of Counsel

Mr. Glassman's practice has focused on sophisticated estate planning for large estates and the representation of fiduciaries concerning trust and estate administration. He has represented many charitable organizations and has practiced in the area of charitable giving.

Mr. Glassman has practiced law for over 30 years. Mr. Glassman was of counsel to the law firm of Bingham McCutchen LLP and prior to the merger of the firm, a principal of Riordan & McKinzie for 18 years.

Jeff serves on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Jewish Home Foundation, Mark Hughes Foundation, Skirball Cultural Center, Los Angeles Sports and Entertainment Commission, and Alzheimer's Los Angeles.

Jeff for many years served on the Board of Directors of IFES, the Washington based NGO, which provides election assistance in emerging democracies around the world.

EDUCATION

J.D., Loyola Law School of Los Angeles, magna cum laude

B.A., University of California, Los Angeles