

Susanna Kim, Associate

Ms. Kim's practice is concentrated in the area of tax, charitable organizations, and trust and estate law.

Prior to joining RHCC, Ms. Kim was a tax specialist at the Internal Revenue Service and a tax associate at PricewaterhouseCoopers. She was also a law clerk for RHCC.

Ms. Kim's experience includes:

- Auditing individuals and businesses
- Training and instructing other IRS auditors
- Analyzing financial statements, accounting books, and records such as trial balance, income statements, and balance sheets of international and domestic corporations
- Preparing tax returns of high net-worth individuals, international and domestic corporations, partnerships, S corporations, LLCs, LLPs, estates, and gifts

EDUCATION

M.J.D. and M.B.T. (Master of Business Taxation) University of Southern California, 2015

B.A. University of California, San Diego, 2010; Magna Cum Laude

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Past Board Member, Head of Scholarship Committee, and Membership Committee Member of Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of L.A. (P.P.P.L.A.)

Past Mentor, M.O.S.T.E. (Motivating Our Students Through Experience)

PUBLICATIONS

"Regulating DAFs Will Not Increase Funding to End User Charities", Taxation of Exempts (May/June 2023)

Editor, "Dusting Off the Old Charitable Remainder Trust" Major Tax Planning (2015)